George M. Hibbard Dies in Cooperstown

Cooperstown—George M. Hibbard, 55, of Cooperstown, died Friday evening in Mary Imogene Bassett Hospital after a three-week illness.
He was born Sept. 17, 1905, in Springfield Center, the son of Stanley and Mary Fonda Hibbard. He married Katherine Adams in Milford on Nov. 24, 1932.
Mr. Hibbard was farm manager for the F. Ambrose Clark poultry farm.
He was a member of Otsego Lodge 138, F&AM; of Otsego Chapter 26, RAM; of Otsego Commandry 76, KT; of Ziyara Temple, Utica; and of the Council of Royal and Select Masters, in Oneonta. He also was a member of the Improved Order of Red Men, Susquehanna Tribe 575.
Besides his wife, he leaves a brother, James Hibbard.
The funeral will be at 3 today from the Ingalls Funeral Home here with the Rev. George F. French, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, officiating. Burial will be in Cherry Valley Cemetery in the spring.
Members of Otsego Lodge 138, F&AM, and Susquehanna Tribe 575 conducted ritualistic services yesterday in the funeral home.

SI DNEY J. SLOCUM

Rome—Sidney J. Slocum, of 301 N. George St., died yesterday in Rome Hospital after a brief illness.
He was born in Rome, the son of Dean S. and Charlotte E. Weismantle Slocum. He was educated in Rome schools.
On June 2, 1930, in St. Mary's Church, he married Marion Mooney. The ceremony was performed by the late Rev. George Heiser.
For the past 35 years, Mr. Slocum was employed at General Cable Corp.
He was of the Baptist faith, and a member of Rome Lodge of Elks.
Besides his wife, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. Thomas G. Richard Jr.; one granddaughter, Cynthia Rickard, both of Rome; and a brother, Stanley D. Slocum, Canastota.
The funeral will be at 2 today from the Thomas A. Cox Funeral Home, 109 W. Court St. Burial will be in Durhamville Cemetery.
Calling hours will be from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9:30 today.

HARRY HRYB

Clayville—Harry Hryb, 71, of Gridley Blvd., a resident of Clayville for 50 years, died yesterday in Faxon Hospital, Utica, after a brief illness.
He was born in Austria, Sept. 4, 1890, the son of Samuel and Anna Hryb. He came to the United States in 1909 and settled in Little Falls.
Mr. Hryb was an employe of the Utica Knitting Mills in Clayville for 30 years, and of the Utica Drop Forge and Tool Corp. for six. He retired three years ago. He was a member of Sts. Peter and Paul Ukrainian Orthodox Church of Utica.
He leaves two sons, Peter and Michael, of Clayville; a sister, Mrs. Rose Tyrant, of Rochester, and five grandchildren.
The funeral will be Wednesday. Arrangements are being handled by the J. Donald Smith Funeral Home, 203 Oneida St.
Callers may call at the Peter Hryb home, Main St., tonight and tomorrow.
