Activities Of Unit

The Clayville Home Demonstration Unit, one of the newer Oneida County units, was organized in February, 1953. There have been three chairmen, with Mrs. Rose Chapdelaine serving three terms; Mrs. Helen Hanson, one term and Mrs. Burton Cameron a term.

The group mixes fun with the completion of its projects. One meeting featured a cup cake contest, with prizes for the prettiest, most original trimming and the finest texture.

A Christmas party was held at Gaspers Hotel and a spring banquet at Smitty's Frankfort Gorge Inn. At the installation of officers, Mrs. Betty Cameron, retiring chairman, seated her successor, Mrs. Stanley Baran.

There are 34 members in the unit, including 18 charter members.

Officers and leaders include Mrs. Cameron, retiring chairman; Mrs. Mary Gilman, vice chairman; Mrs. Rose Chapdelaine, treasurer; Mrs. Jennie Tiibe, chairman of refreshment committee.

Leaders include Mrs. Gertrude Spencer, "How Important is a Will"; Mrs. Evelyn Bevins, "Gluing Furniture"; and "Decorative Pillows"; Mrs. Alice Jones, "Caring Chair Seats" and a general committee worked on "Christmas Decorations."

A major project was an 18-hour first aid course taught by Anthony Skane of the Utica Fire Department. The course was attended by members and bus drivers from the Sauquoit Valley Central School. It was held six evenings for three hours.

With money raised from community birthday calendars, a new stove was purchased for the Village Hall kitchen. This is where the regular meetings are held the second and fourth Mondays of each month.
