

Credit Union Official Dies

Roy F. Caraher, 66, of 1633 Howard Ave., who has been prominent in credit union organizations, was dead on arrival yesterday at St. Elizabeth Hospital. Dr. Preston Clark, coroner, said death was due to natural causes.

He was born in Utica, attended Utica schools and was graduated from Utica Free Academy. For 46 years he was a test specialist for the Niagara-Mohawk Power Corp. He retired in 1966. He never married.

He was a member of St. John's Church and its Holy Name Society, the Utica Council Knights of Columbus and its Fourth Degree Assembly, the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and the 25-Year Club of Niagara-Mohawk.

At the time of his death he was the treasurer of the Utica Gas and Electric Employees Federal Credit Union; a member of the Board of Directors of the Central New York Officers Credit Union and a member of the Utica-Rome Council of New York State Credit Union League.

He leaves a sister, Mrs. John (Margaret) O'Connell, Utica.

The funeral will be at 9 Monday from the Heintz Funeral Home, Utica, and at 9:30 from St. John's Church. Burial will be in St. Mary's Cemetery, Clinton.

Calling hours are from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 tomorrow and Sunday.

BEARDSLEY TIERNY
MOHAWK — Beardsley R. Tierney, 66, of 29 W. Center St., an employe of Sperry-Rand in Utica, died yesterday enroute to Mohawk Valley General Hospital, Iliou.

Mr. Tierney reportedly suffered a heart attack while operating a snow-blower at his home. He was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital about 6 p.m.

He was born in Gloversville, son of Harold R. and Nina VanAlstine Tierney. He married Wyneda Williams in Gloversville in 1928. The couple had lived here for the past 24 years.

He was a member of the Dutch-Reformed Church here. Besides his wife he leaves a stepfather, Harold Benedict, and a daughter, Mrs. Charles (Sally Ann) Sheldon, both of Mohawk; a son, Robert H., attending college in Pennsylvania; three sisters, Mrs. Vivian Monahan and Mrs. Edith Oram, both of Mohawk and Mrs. Beverly LeClair of Herkimer; four brothers, Edward of Philadelphia, Pa., George of Sterling, Ohio, Gerald Fairfield and Herbert Benedict, both of Mohawk.

The funeral will be at 2 Sunday from the Graves-Applegate Funeral Home. Burial will be in Mohawk Cemetery next spring.

Calling hours are from 7 to 9 tomorrow.

MRS. CARMINE ALFANO
 Mrs. Angeline Alfano, 82, of 245 South St., widow of Carmine Alfano, died yesterday in Fulton Hospital.

She was born in Abruzzi, Italy, daughter of Frank and Gemma DeGrande. She came to Utica in 1897. She was married to Mr. Alfano in 1905. He died in 1957.

She was a member of St. John's Church. She leaves five daughters, Mrs. Florence Pecheone, Miss Angeline Jean and Mrs. Anthon (Lillian) Tomaino, all of Utica; Mrs. George (Marie) Hoagland, and Mrs. Ann Thurston, both of Syracuse; two sons, Egley, Whitesboro, and Carmen Jr., Sauguit, and three sisters, Mrs. Beatrice Paolini, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Mary Strimmar, Oak Park, Ill.; and Sister M. Wilma, OSE, Costa Rica, and a brother, Albert DeGrande, in California.

The funeral will be at 10 Monday from the Egan-Funeral Home and at 10:30 from St. John's Church. Burial will be in Calvary Cemetery. Calling hours are from 7 to 9 tonight and from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 tomorrow and Sunday.

GLENN J. HOWE
ST. JOHNSVILLE — Glenn J. Howe, 52, of 19 West Main St., a former restaurant proprietor, died yesterday in his home.

He was born in St. Johnsville. He attended village schools. He married Lois Keller in 1946 in St. Johnsville. He was a World War II veteran.

Mr. Howe was employed by the Palatine Dye Co. for 23 years. He left the firm five years ago and purchased Ed's Restaurant on Main Street. He managed the restaurant for two years until ill health forced him to retire.

MISS ELIZABETH CLARK
NEWPORT — Miss Elizabeth Clark, 75, a life resident of the Newport area, died yesterday in St. Luke's Memorial Hospital Center, Utica.

She was born in Newport, daughter of James and Ella Daly Clark. She was a graduate of Newport High School and Oneonta Normal School. She taught for several years in rural Herkimer County schools.

GINA CAMEROTA
WHITESBORO — Gina Elizabeth Camerota, infant daughter of Daniel and Jo Ann Zysk Camerota, 202 Main St., died shortly after birth yesterday in St. Elizabeth Hospital.

The funeral will be today from the Egan-Funeral Home with burial in Calvary Cemetery.

ARTHUR E. BEZOLD, 73, of 42 Lake St., a Town of Richfield tax collector, died Wednesday in Bassett Hospital, Copperstown.

He was born in New York City, attended schools there, and married Marian Lorrain there. The couple lived in New York for many years, where he was a fireman.

He served in World War I with the U.S. Army. Mr. and Mrs. Bezold came to Richfield Springs in 1942, and he was employed as chief of the fire department of the former Rhodes Hospital, Utica, until it was closed.

He then became a federal law enforcement officer stationed in the Chimes Building, Syracuse. He later became a policeman in Richfield Springs and village Water Commissioner from which Joseph's Catholic Church. Burial will be in St. Joseph's Cemetery next spring.

Calling hours are from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 today. The funeral will be at 7:30 tomorrow from the American Legion post members will co-sponsor services at 8.
