

Mother's Auxiliary to Stage Banquet

The annual banquet of the Mother's Auxiliary will be held by Troop 1, Roy Scouts, tonight at 8 in Zion Church Hall, Columbia Street, between Fay and Varian Streets. All members of the troop are invited to attend the first official dinner of the year. The banquet will be given by John P. Curton, Scout Executive. W. H. Hood will deliver a brief address on "The Value of Scouting in the Community."

Troop 1 is in charge of Scoutmaster Sidney N. Van Allen. It will receive a set of five holders for standards and parade which will be given the troop by the auxiliary.

Education makes man successful. You know exceptions? Perhaps you aren't a good judge of education.

MORE DOUBTFUL NAMES UPROOTED

Deeds Registered in Three Wards

Police investigation of 111 challenged registrations in the Third, Fourth and Fifth Wards continued yesterday, seven more doubtful names, making a total of 28, attached to illegal registrations, being turned in by Sergeants Philip Heilly and John Jones from the Fifth Ward. More names are expected to be added to the list today.

The report reads: Emil Chambrun, 411 Second Street, at which address there is a vacant store and flat. This person's home is at 804 Butler Street.

No such person as Sydney Lewis at 621 Bleeker Street. Person living at that address stated Lewis lives at 405 Park Avenue.

No such person as John Farnon at 420 Jay Street, nor Raymond Louis at 511 Bleeker Street. No such person as Gordon Fringle at 430 Jay Street. Persons at this address stated Fringle rooms at 405 Park Avenue.

No such person as Joseph Shields at 411 Bleeker Street, nor Sidney Kennedy at 423 John Street as registered.

Chief of Police Timothy D. McCarthy, in commenting on the number of illegal registrations discovered to date, mentioned a least a person has lived in a certain district four weeks, the county four months and the state one year.

CLUES ARE FOUND IN TWO OF CASES

Missing Migrants

Clues were unearthed yesterday in two of Utica's three mysterious disappearance cases. Local police were notified by Chief of Police Owens, Rome, that Francis Horne, steerman for the Northern New York Utility Company, picked up Martin Nowak, 28, 1294 Stark Street, on the highway near Rome, and gave the man a ride to Colchester, near Oswego, where he was told him he was on his way to Syracuse.

Police also received a telephone communication stating Nettie Dunn, 48, 140 Bunker Street, who has been missing since Tuesday morning, is in Frankfurt. Neither police nor the family of Peter Imhoff, 19, 1296 Erie Street, missing, F. A. Coyne, 1000 Erie Street, is searching the whereabouts of the youth, who disappeared 10 days ago. Police stated they received no reply from a letter written the chief of police of Washington, Kan.

STAGE and SCREEN

UTICA'S CHANCES NONE TOO BRIGHT

Utica's chances to gain the establishment of the Universal Pressing Machine Company, which was organized recently with Campbell E. Hodges as president, dimmed last night with the announcement that President Hodges returned to Oswego yesterday to confer on the probable location of the company there.

The company has been offered two acres on a siding and an ideal manufacturing plant in the north-west city, Mr. Hodges stated. In addition an offer has also been made in Lowville of a well equipped machine foundry by C. A. H. Howell.

Mr. Hodges states he is interested in Utica and desires to establish here, having been pleased with the support many Uticans have offered but that he was dissatisfied with the action of the leading officials of the Chamber of Commerce.

Montevideo, Uruguay, will erect a building costing nearly $500,000 for the Faculty of Architecture and the National Art Institute.

Blind Association Seeks Cooperation

A warning has been issued that there is a group of men in the city selling rags purporting to be women by blind persons. Three women are in no way connected with the association and are without communicating with the Central Association for the Blind at 22 Bank Place, telephone 4-1825, as many fraudulent schemes are known to be operating in the state.

SHOOT TOO NEAR

Only three complaints were reported to police of persons hunting within the city limits yesterday. It was reported a man was hunting for a woman in the street of John's (Union) street, that two persons were shot at Jefferson street and one at the corner of Jefferson and State streets. The woman was shot in the back of the head and the man was shot in the chest. The woman was taken to the hospital and the man was taken to the hospital.

Charged With Taking Steam Engine Parts

Charged with stealing parts from a steam engine, Local police at 525 Whitehorse Street, was committed to the county jail to await the action of the grand jury after assignment before Justice of the Peace William R. Jones, New Hartford, last night.

Officer Philip Callery, off duty at 4 yesterday afternoon, was sauntering down Whitehorse Street when he noticed a man, identified as Lawrence B. McMahon, notified Sgt. William McNeiloh, of the New Hartford state police station, who had taken care of the case.

Joseph L. Nichols, 525 Whitehorse Street, when the machine was bought, it cost $2,300 and since the installation of a new engine, used for a threshing machine, the machine was stalled, he had tried to sell the old one. He added Longale had dismantled the old engine and taken several parts, valued at $100. Several of the brass parts were identified in a local junk yard where Longale had disposed of them.

While being fingerprinted last night, Longale told of World War record and stated when "only" years old he was committed to the Reform School of Industry in Rochester for 12 months.

Banking Institute Classes Continue

The class in banking fundamentals of the Utica Chapter, American Institute of Banking, which met last night in the rooms of the institute in the Onondaga National Bank Building, was in charge of Governor C. Clark of the Utica Trust & Savings Company. Clark will continue as instructor for another week, when another banking instructor will be assigned for a similar period of the work.

Receiving "Fellow's Duties" at last night's meeting, the advanced course in investments was in charge of Dr. M. H. Hays, who is director of the school of extension teaching at Syracuse University. He discussed the balance sheet with reference to interpretation, construction and analysis.

PEACHES AND COMPANY PLEASES AT COLONIAL

Another burlesque among the new shows is at the Colonial Theater, "Peaches and Company." The show is a whole production in modern scenery and costumes, consequently profit thereby. The company is chosen to conform with these new ideas is a dependable one. It features a strong comedy, "Peaches and Company," by Joe Van, master comic of burlesque renown. There are also Leo Dunn, Roy Sears, Sam Rice, Jr., Don Proctor, Leslie Phillips, Althea Conroy and Leon Reed, not to mention chorus noted for good looks, pep and ability.

WELSH YOUTH CALLS ON RELATIVES HERE

Allied Flores Davis, Penrhyn, death, North Wales, spent one day here this week with Edward Owen, 1508 Kemble Street, a brother of his grandmother. He was on his way to a few years, starting in place to locate, having secured employment on a mammoth poultry farm owned by a son of the late Sam Jones, who was known as "The King of Poultry" when mayor of Toledo and to whom Mr. Davis is related, his grandmother being a sister of the man who brought Davis a few years ago. He was a few years ago by the motto he adopted and practiced in municipal affairs.

Natives of Penrhyn, and a grandson of John Hughes, Tanycragg House, Hordley, had been glad to meet them all, but his stay here was to short for him to make any calls or for Mr. Owen to arrange a party. Several of his relatives, who were at home during the day and evening he was there, among them John J. Williams, an old friend of the family, who promptly discovered the young man had an excellent voice.

With Mr. Williams at piano he sang "Cartet," "Gwlad y Delyn," "O Rest in the Lord," and "The Morning Bells." The first really cheered Mr. Owen, who has been ill for a long time, although now recovering.

The Latin American Medical Congress will hold a general session in Panama next January.

Mardi Gras Ball Staged in Martin

A large number attended the Mardi Gras ball last night in Hotel Martin. The carnival of fun was sponsored by the Impression, one of the newest organizations in the city.

Orange and black, Halloween colors, were predominant, and several of the girls wore elaborate costumes. The decorations of the ballroom were a glass beaded shade which reflected its many light beams on the sparkling ballroom floor. W. W. Martin was in charge of the decorations.

Donald Waldron and his 12-piece orchestra furnished music; the program being broadcast from W. W. Martin at the head of the entertainment program were the numbers given by the famous Constance and Marianne Gale, radio and record artists, singing from their adopted Gretchen Green Tavern in New York City. Several acts of cabaret entertainment were included in the program.

The committee in charge of the ball consisted of Donald P. Mr. George C. Berg, Edward Martin, Edward M. Hyland, Arthur Sills, Lewis Roemer, and Harold Ryan.

Former Utican Is Dead in Illinois

Samuel J. Hardy, 56, former Utica business man, died suddenly Wednesday night at his home in Evanston, Ill. For several years he was manager of the local store of the Grand Union Tea Company. Mr. Hardy was elected vice president of the organization about 12 years ago with headquarters in Evanston, in charge of the stores in the western part of the United States.

Mr. Hardy was a native of Glenfield, Ill. He was married and had a son, who died with him. The funeral will be held from the home of a son in Glenfield, Ill., Saturday at 2 p. m., and the services will be conducted by Rev. J. J. Hays.

THE SKULL, THRILLING, MODERN, MYSTERY PLAY

"The Skull," thrilling, modern, mystery play, has been selected as the opening attraction of the fall and winter season at the Lyric Theatre. Here is said to be a mystery for the most blasé theatergoer, a play that ran eight months in New York and received the critics an avalanche of praise.

The story, told in an old deserted chateau, tells an adventure of a man, a woman, a dog, a cat, a skeleton, a shadow, a thousand and one things unclassified to thrill and at the same time provide unique entertainment.
