Girl Passes Tests Taken While Awaiting Operation

Miss Zula Kessler, 24 Richardson Avenue, who took three regents examinations in Faxton Hospital just before an operation, passed all of them.

Her report card shows she passed French Two Years, English Three Years, and History (European). Two she took on Monday of last week, one on Tuesday morning, and that afternoon underwent the operation, from which she is recovering nicely. She expects to return home Saturday.

Injured Students Leave Hospital

David C. Heverin, 981 Rose Place, and George Meyl, Scranton, Hamilton College student, victims of recent auto crashes, were discharged from Faxton Hospital Thursday.

Robert Kiehm, 1601 Sunset Avenue, and Andrew S. Moscrip, Tonawanda, Pa., were reported much improved, as was Carmen Cosco, 16, 715 Humbert Avenue, struck by an auto Wednesday.

Kiehm and Heverin were critically injured when thrown from the roadster in which they were passengers as it struck the curb in Oneida Street, south of Higby Road June 15. Moscrip and Meyl were two of four passengers in an open car which crashed into the side of a large truck in Genesee Street, New Hartford, June 9.

Others hurt in the crash were William Webb Wright, son of Dr. William Wright, superintendent of Marcy Hospital, and Winston H. Beavers, Vienna.

MORRIS GOTTLIEB DRAWS $50 FINE

Arrested During Poison Liquor Investigation in Utica

Morris Gottlieb, 42, 428 Lafayette Street, one of several arrested during police investigation of the poison liquor which claimed 16 lives in Utica and 15 in Gloversville, was fined $50 Thursday by City Judge John T. Burkley. Gottlieb admitted violating the state ABC Law.

Michael Horinka, 25, New Hartford, denied a reckless driving charge and his case was adjourned to July 3. He was arrested Thursday morning by Motorcycle Officer Claude Temple.

Two charges against Floyd Speck, arrested more than a year ago, were disposed of. He drew a suspended sentence on a disorderly conduct charge and a public intoxication charge was withdrawn. James Howard, 34, 1514 Genesee Street, and Robert J. Smith, 38, 183 Proctor Boulevard, were discharged when disorderly conduct complaints were withdrawn. They were arrested several days ago after a fight in Lafayette Street.

St. Joseph's Scene of Double Wedding

A double wedding was performed in St. Joseph's Church with a nuptial mass Thursday by the Rev. Louis Murlock, assistant pastor, when Miss Eleanor Reilly, 1512 Seymour Avenue, became the bride of Ralph Crandall, jr., 1119 City Street, and James Reilly, jr., brother of Eleanor, married Miss Katherine Kreher, 1216 Stark Street.

A wedding breakfast followed at Brassel's, after which the couples left for a northern trip. Mr. and Mrs. Reilly will reside at 1512 Seymour Avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Crandall at 1119 City Street.

Mr. Reilly is employed at the American Emblem Company. Mrs. Reilly and Mr. Crandall are both employes of the Utica Knitting Company.

Central Hospital Committee Elects

The Central Hospital Committee met at Hotel Utica Thursday noon and elected Warnick J. Kernan as chairman. The committee was organized recently to study local hospital problems with a view to unification of efforts.

The committee consists of the superintendent and two representatives from each hospital. Miss Julia Hardy was named temporary secretary. Gilbert Butler has been serving as temporary chairman.

Alexander Pirnie, Community Chest president, presided. Having completed the preliminary work, the Chest will now sever its official connection with the committee.

SEEKS NOMINATION

Peter Imhoff, 1203 Erie Street, seeks the Republican nomination as alderman of the Sixth Ward. He has always made his home in the ward. He attended Syracuse University and was a student of College of Business Administration for two years.
